December 15, 2014

Dear Fashion Calendar Subscribers,

The CFDA is pleased to announce the launch of the new Fashion Calendar website, on CFDA.com, which will seamlessly transfer the Fashion Calendar to be a solely digital resource, with greater scheduling tools for navigating the multitude of industry events. The digital calendar, which will go live in early 2015, can be utilized as both a mobile app and desktop tool.

As we are now transitioning to a digital interface, this issue, December 15th 2014, will be the last printed edition of the Fashion Calendar. We are confident that our improved service will only increase scheduling efficiency of New York Fashion Week and market weeks.

The Fashion Calendar will remain a subscription service and all active accounts will be integrated into the new site. Subscribers will have access to the calendar up to six months in advance, as new events are added daily. Each subscriber maintains their own profile and listings, which includes user history. The site allows subscribers the ability to filter and sort by any event type. Similarly, the calendar can still be printed by day, week or month view.

We look forward to sharing our streamlined calendar and will be in touch regarding the launch in the New Year.

Happy Holidays!

All the best,
CFDA Team

FASHION CALENDAR

NOTE: Although listings are repeated until the scheduled date of every event, they frequently incorporate IMPORTANT CHANGES. A CAREFUL CHECK OF EVERY ISSUE, therefore, will yield the maximum use of FASHION CALENDAR to the reader...
